

Print Making Workshop at RMZ Art Centre.

May 4, 2018

RMZ Art Centre Kickstarts a National Printmaking Workshop at RMZ Ecoworld

Visitors at RMZ Art Centre's 'The Gallery' will be able to experience a visual understanding on the dynamic mediums of printmaking with an assortment of unique techniques, at an open-for-all workshop, conducted by eminent artists.

The printmaking workshop will incorporate three developments and explore hands-on processes in Woodcut, Etching and New Media Prints. Some of the most significant participating artists include Baiju Parthan, Champa Sharath, Iranna G R, Jayakumar G, Kavita Nayar, Kavita Shah, Laxma Goud, Manjunath Kamath B, Palaniappan Rm, Ravikumar Kashi, Sonal Varshneya, Tejendra Singh Baoni, Viraj Naik, Vivek Vilasini and Walter Emilio D'Souza.

The final prints of the artists will be on display on 10th May 2018 from 5:00 pm – 8:00 pm.

Reflecting the vision of the initiative, Anu Menda, Managing Trustee, RMZ Foundation said, "Our broad objective is to create and expand international cultural alliances; making art accessible to broader audiences. This initiative will act as a catalyst to explore new possibilities where established artists can mentor promising talent and create an enriched community of avid art enthusiasts." Equipped with state-of-the-art technology and logistical infrastructure, the RMZ Art Centre's endeavour is not for profit; indeed, it is a space to promote engagement with the students and art fraternity in India, as well as the general public, through interactive workshops and outreach programs.
